WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS FORM?

This form enables an employee, trade union or an employer, covered by the scope of the ELRC constitution, to refer a dispute to the ELRC for resolution.

This form must be completed whenever a dispute is referred to the ELRC.

♦ If the dispute is one referred to in clauses 24 or 25 or 26 and 27 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for conciliation, arbitration, joint conciliation arbitration and con-arb by the ELRC.

♦ If the dispute is one referred to in clause 10.1 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for conciliation. If the dispute remains unresolved and the parties request arbitration there is no need to complete any additional referral form. The arbitrator will record the request in writing and the arbitration will then proceed in terms of clause 25(4) to 25(8).

♦ If the dispute is one referred to in clause 14.1.1 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for conciliation by the ELRC in terms of clause 24. If the dispute remains unresolved and the parties request arbitration there is no need to complete any additional referral form. The arbitrator will record the request in writing and the arbitration will then proceed in terms of clause 25(4) to 25(8).

♦ If the dispute is one referred to in section 14.1.2 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for arbitration by the ELRC in terms of clause 25 of the dispute procedure.

♦ If the dispute is one referred to clause 14.1.3 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for conciliation and arbitration by the ELRC in terms of clause 26 of the dispute procedure.

♦ If the dispute is one referred to clause 14.1.4 of the ELRC Dispute Procedure, the dispute will be set down for con-arb by the ELRC in terms of clause 27 of the dispute procedure.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN WHEN THIS FORM IS SUBMITTED?

If the General Secretary is satisfied that the dispute is in fact a dispute in terms of the Constitution of the ELRC, and the referral has been properly served and that the requirements of the constitution have been complied with, the dispute shall be registered.

The General Secretary shall appoint a panellist from the ELRC panel who must attempt to resolve the dispute, unless the parties to the dispute have themselves agreed on a particular ELRC panellist, in which case the ELRC will appoint that panellist (provided the panellist is available).

When you receive correspondence from the General Secretary requesting further information you must respond urgently, to avoid undue delays.

TIME FRAMES, GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND CONDONATION APPLICATION

Before referring a dispute, kindly refer to the time frames indicated below as referred to in the Dispute Procedures:

1) A party may refer a dispute to the General Secretary:
   ▪ In the case of a dismissal dispute
     (a) Within 45 days of the date of dismissal, or if it is a later date, within 45 days of the employer making a final decision to dismiss or uphold the dismissal.
     (b) Within 52 days of the date on which the employee serves on the employer written notice to conclude an appeal lodged against a dismissal.
   ▪ In the case of an unfair labour practice dispute
     (c) Within 45 days of the date of the Act or omission which allegedly constitutes the unfair labour practice, or if it is a later date, within 45 days of the date on which the employee became aware of the Act or omission.
   ▪ In the case of promotions, appointments and transfers within 30 days from the date on which the employee:
     (d) Became aware of the recommendation, or
     (e) Was informed of the recommendation, whichever is the later.
   ▪ In the case of a dispute, which requires the employers grievance procedure to be invoked, the dispute may not be referred, unless:
     (f) The employee as invoked the grievance procedure, and
     (g) An outcome has been rendered; or
     (h) In the event of the grievance procedure having been invoked and an outcome had not been rendered at least 45 days from the date on which the grievance was lodged.
   ▪ In the case of any other dispute within 45 days of the date on which the dispute arose.

2) A party may not refer a dismissal dispute, where the dismissal has been appealed unless:
   ▪ The appeal had not been concluded by the employer within 45 days; and
   ▪ The employer had been served with 7 days written notice to remedy the default.

3) A party may not refer a dispute, except a dismissal dispute before invoking the grievance procedure relating to that dispute and allowing 45 days for the resolution thereof.
If the referral is late, then ELRC Form E2, “Application for Condonation of late referral of a dispute to the ELRC”, must accompany the dispute referral.
