Registration of Private Education Providers Offering Qualifications and Part-Qualifications on the Occupational Qualifications Sub-Framework by the Department of Higher Education and Training

Subsequent to the release of the Joint Communiqué¹ of 2016: The Registration and Accreditation for Private Education Providers Offering Qualifications and Part-Qualifications on the Occupational Qualifications Sub-Framework, the Department of Higher Education and Training has received high number of applications from Skills Development Providers (SDPs) for registration as private colleges with the Department.

Applicants are hereby notified that acknowledgement of receipt of their applications for registration is currently underway and applicants will receive acknowledgement letters in due course. In the meantime applicants must continue to operate offering qualifications and part-qualifications for which they have valid accreditation from the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations (QCTO) or any delegated relevant quality assurance body until such that determination on their applications for registration as private colleges is made and the outcome thereon is communicated to them.
