

Department publishes PSET milestones from 2009 to 2016

15 July 2016 – The Department of Higher Education and Training has published an overview of the milestones achieved since it was first established in 2009. The 24-page publication provides a summarised account of the milestones which range from university, technical and vocational education and training, and community education.

In total, The Department of Higher Education and Training: Milestones: 2009 to 2016: An overview, also covers access to the PSET system, female participation in the higher education and training, the SETAs, NSFAS, work-integrated learning and career development services, amongst others.

Free electronic copies are available for download.