MINISTER BLADE NZIMANDE TO OFFICIALLY LAUNCH THE NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY MEDICAL SCHOOL

Members of the media are invited to join the Minister of Higher Education, Science and Innovation, Dr Blade Nzimande during the official launch of the Nelson Mandela University (NMU) Medical School.

The planning for the Nelson Mandela University medical school dates back to 2013 when a business plan was first developed.

In 2014, the Department of Higher Education and Training supported NMU to establish a school of medicine and public health with additional relevant programmes in medicine and public health as part of the university’s ten-year Master Plan.

The launch will take place as follows:

Date: 30 November 2021

Time: 11:00am

Venue: NMU Missionvale Campus, Gqeberha
Members of the media are requested to confirm their attendance by contacting Lehlohonolo Mphuti at 0619859474.
