DEPUTY MINISTER OF HIGHER EDUCATION, SCIENCE AND INNOVATION, MR BUTI MANAMELA TO ADDRESS THE WORLD SKILLS SOUTH AFRICA NATIONAL CONFERENCE IN DURBAN

Deputy Minister of Higher Education, Science and Innovation, Mr Buti Manamela will deliver the closing address at the WorldSkills South Africa National (WSZA) Conference at the Durban International Convention Centre in KwaZulu-Natal.

Taking place under the theme “Ratcheting up the Production of 21st Century Artisans”, the conference takes place alongside the WSZA National competition and the Career Festival also taking place in KwaZulu-Natal. The DHET is in the final stages of promulgating the National Apprenticeship and Artisan Development Strategy 2030. The conference is therefore used as a launch pad for the promulgated strategy.

Deputy Minister will deliver the keynote address as follows:

Venue: Durban International Convention Centre, KwaZulu-Natal.

Date: 10 June 2022

Time: 12:00
